Pictures for Yearbook

January 17 at 2:20 p.m. we will be taking pictures of the choir, band, and hand bell choirs. Those who play and sing in any of these groups need to dress like there is going to be a program. Please bring your dresses, suits, ties and shirts for these pictures.

Revival – Steve Pettit

We will be having evangelistic services January 20-25th with Evangelist Steve Pettit. These meetings are geared for the entire family. Mike Egerdahl will conduct a special teen program called the “Cola Wars,” and Philip Emory will conduct a nightly children’s program called “Operation: Special Forces.” The teens will begin with visitation at 3:45 p.m. (Monday through Wednesday,) stop for supper at fast food and return to church to start their service at 6:15 p.m. The adults and children will begin at 6:30 p.m. Please bring your friends and neighbors to share in the excitement of these services each evening.

The high school will be having a miniature “war” during school on Thursday and will continue the “Cola Wars” that night. It will begin at 5:15 p.m. on Thursday night.

Friday night is school night and after church we will be having an open gym night and playing “German Spotlight” until 11:45 p.m. There will be a fee of $2 for the pizza.

Elementary and High School Revival - Homework Passes

All students attending revival will receive homework passes. All other students must complete their homework.

Winter Reading Contest

Get ready for our annual elementary winter reading contest which begins TOMORROW, Wednesday, January 16th! Complete information is included in your child's folder today; however, reading may not begin until tomorrow. Our contest will run for four weeks ending on Wednesday morning, February 13th. Last year's top readers in K5-6th grades read over 40,000 minutes! Lets' strive to exceed that total!
